

WELCOMING DIVERSITY

A MARCH and PICNIC

Georgetown, Ontario

Saturday August 11th from 2:00 PM – 7:00 PM

This event demonstrates our desire to welcome people of diverse backgrounds in our community! It is the inspiration of a group of youth involved in Peer Outreach Support Services & Education (POSSE) Project in North Halton, who are committed to leading the way in Welcoming Diversity. We believe everyone has the right to feel safe in our community regardless of age, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, class, sub-culture, or abilities.

Meet at Remembrance Park at 2 pm, and we will march down Main St. to Cedarvale Park. People are encouraged to bring flags of various countries, the Pride flag, or signs supporting HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES!

ENTERTAINMENT

Georgetown's Graham selected to join RBC Seniors Jubilee cast

Christy Graham of Georgetown has been selected as one of the performers of the popular RBC Seniors Jubilee at the Roy Thomson Hall, August 13-17.

In its 19th season, the five days of shows feature more than 1,300 performers in their 50s, 60s and 70s and over.

The Jubilee begins at 11 a.m. each day with lobby entertainment where audience members can dance to live bands, sing along with choirs, and enjoy the antics of wandering minstrels. Then at 1 p.m. the musical variety show gets under way with everything from ballroom to vaudeville, comedy to cabaret and tango to tap.

Graham started singing at the age of three when she won a gold medal at the Peel Festival. Since then she has had leading roles in numerous productions and British farces in the Toronto area. Graham also performed at the Limelight Supper Club and at a dinner theatre she co-owned with her husband. Now semi-retired, she is devoting more time to singing.

The lineup of performers include Dick Joiner, Don Harron, Billy Newton-Davis, Johnny Toronto, Peter Shaw, Gael Force Dancers and ballroom dance champions.

Tickets vary from $18.50 to $39.50 (call 416-872-4255) with special group rates for 20 or more (call 416-593-4822 ext. 225). Or go to www.roythomson.com

Key For Two set to open next week at Century Church

Key For Two is set to open at Century Church Theatre in Hillsburgh next week.

A farce, written by two of Britain's greatest comedy writers, John Chapman and Dave Freeman, Key For Two is full of situations that are disastrous for the participants, but hilarious for the audience.

A farce always has a victim who gets deeper and deeper into trouble as the problems mount. Harriet has a secret, and she keeps it very skilfully until an accident in the kitchen, and the arrival of several unexpected, and in most cases, unwelcome guests throws her plans awry. Soon everyone is pretending to be someone else, most have something to hide, and the confusion builds until it seems impossible to avert a catastrophe. The hectic finale brings a surprise twist, and one of the best closing scenes in comedy.

The play runs August 15-25, with matinees on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and evening performances on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays. There will be no evening performance on Thursday, Aug. 23, due to a private performance. Tickets are $22-$27, including all taxes and charges, and can be reserved by calling the box office at 519-855-4586.
