

Centre Stage dancers win movie roles

Students in the Georgetown-based Centre Stage School of the Arts were among 500 young people who auditioned for and earned parts in a made-for-TV movie musical that will begin filming in Orillia this month. One of the local girls, Sarah Chapman, will play a prominent role in King of the Camp, which is expected to be released next year. Five other Centre Stage pupils are slated to perform in supporting roles for the movie and 18 more will be included in the chorus. Members of the class (front, from left) are: Emily Loewen, Hayley Aquilina, Laura Chiavogato, Alyssa Gibbons, Kayla Marchand, Alicia Marrows, Julia Boniface. Middle row: Julia Bruno, Chanelle Lavictoire, Tara Marchand, Taylor Lyons, Kessia Couto, Bekkie Rehfeldt, Leah Holmes, Amali Firhoj. Back row: Siobhan Devine, Kelsey Wenzel, Danielle Ott, Katie Hill, Kimerly Ivany, Allie Laforet, Leah Kearney and choreographer Kelly Paddle. Absent from the photo were: Sarah Chapman, Jennifer Bowser.
