What I did on my summer vacation

Town of Halton Hills Musical Theatre Camp presented The Puzzle, The Kids and The Wardrobe recently at the John Elliott Theatre. It all began in the 1980s when four sisters could not learn to get along. They decided to go there separate ways and forbid their future children from ever becoming friends. But then Grandma Isabelle came up with an ingenious plan to reunite her family— a puzzle making party! As the grandkids struggle to complete the puzzle they are put in some sticky situations. Together they learn some pretty valuable life lessons and have a whole lot of musical fun. Performers included from left: Danielle Arbeiter, Bethany Hanman, Erin Troughton, Dakota Catalfoma, and Emma Ayers.
