Cash, jewelry and a watch were stolen from a Hall Rd. condominium Saturday while the homeowners were out between 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

Police report the residents went out but left the condo unlocked for their neighbour who was temporarily keeping her dog there while she washed her floors.

When she later went over to the neighbours' condo she encountered a man coming out of the master bedroom who told her he was a family friend, then left.

She too left, and locked the door. When the homeowners returned she told them about the incident. They checked their belongings and discovered several items were missing and contacted police.

The man is described as white, about 5'9", 180 lbs, with blonde hair and a heavy build.
