Volunteer tutors required for St. Joseph's homework club

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Halton is in urgent need of volunteer tutors at an after-school homework club in Halton Hills.

The agency is interested in hearing from high-school-aged youth or adults interested in volunteering one hour a week, Tuesdays at 3:45 p.m. to tutor children at St. Joseph's School, Acton.

Being part of The Club is a rewarding and great way for high school students to earn their community service hours. Adults and teens volunteer currently at 12 Clubs in Oakville and two in Milton. The Club was established by the agency five years ago and has achieved great success in these communities.

Each Club consists of 16 tutors matched one-on-one with 16 children. Two adult supervisors, often retired teachers, are enlisted to supervise each Club.

For more information please call 905-878-8840 or e-mail northhalton@bbbshalton.ca. Details about The Club or other Big Brothers Big Sisters of Halton programs can be found at www.bbbshalton.ca
