ATHLETES of the Week

CHRIST THE KING	ACTON DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL	GEORGETOWN DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL

David Juszcyk	Kaylee Kearns	Chelsea Jensen

Megan Catling	Rebecca Woolford	Dylan Keith

Acton High School Athletes of the Week are Rebecca Woolford and Kaylee Kearns. Woolford, the goalie for the Bearcats girls hockey team, was chosen for her initiative in making girls' hockey a reality by taking on the position of goalie. In spite of the fact she never played the position before, she has been named the team's MVP most of the season. Kearns, a forward/defense on the hockey team, was credited with heading the charge to resurrect girls' hockey at AHS, and leads the team in scoring this year.

Georgetown District High School Athletes of the Week are Dylan Keith and Chelsea Jensen. Keith, a power forward on the junior Rebels basketball team, was selected for his strong offensive play against MMR recently. Jensen, a middle and power on the Rebels senior volleyball team, was chosen for her offensive domination at the University of Guelph tournament.

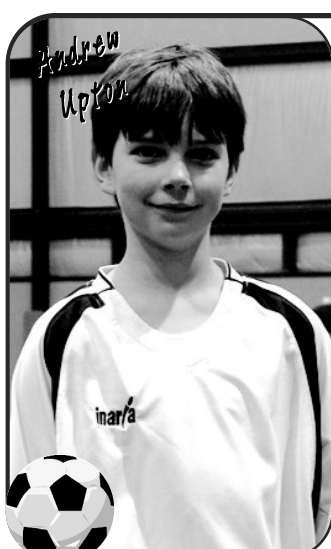

Christ the King Catholic High School Athletes of the Week are Megan Catling and David Juszcyk. Catling, a power hitter on the Jaguars' senior girls volleyball team was selected for her leadership and hits in Ctk's victory against EC Drury. Juszcyk, who plays centre on the senior Jaguars' basketball team, was recognized for his clutch shooting, rebounds and hustle in a 63-59 win over OT.

DUFFERINrockstar

of the week January 19, 2008

Andrew Upton

plays on the white Under-13 team. So far, he has five years of soccer experience in his career. He plays a high-energy style of defense, both indoor and outdoor, and enjoys the indoor game because the surface at the Dufferin Centre in Acton is fantastic.
