"Quality Child Care You Can See!"

Town's Rec Dept. offers March Break Madness

Looking for something to do over the March Break? Recreation & Parks has fun activities planned for the week of March 10 to 14.

March Break Madness is a camp-like program for 7 to 12 year olds and will keep your children enthused and entertained. Leaders from 2007 Recreation & Parks summer camps will head up the fun. Crafts, games, swimming and a bus trip will make this a March Break favorite!

Madness runs Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Gellert Community Centre and McKenzie-Smith Bennett School. Extended program hours are also available from 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. at the Gellert and 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at McKenzie-Smith for an additional fee.

For younger ones, 4 to 6 years old, popular Dash Sports is running on Tuesday, March 11 at Acton Community Centre and Thursday, March 13 at Gellert.

Keep active through the week at a free recreational swim at both the Gellert and Acton pools, Monday to Friday, 1:30 to 3 p.m. through the generous sponsorship of Tim Hortons. A complete March Break recreational swimming schedule can be picked up at the pools or at www.haltonhills.ca.

Free recreational skating is also being offered Monday to Friday, 1:30 to 2:50 p.m. at the Acton Arena and 2 to 3:20 p.m. at both the Georgetown Memorial Arena and Mold-Masters SportsPlex through the generous sponsorships of Rotary Club of Acton and Optimist Club of Georgetown. All other regularly scheduled skating and shinny times are cancelled during March Break.

Challenge yourself to fast track your aquatic advanced lifesaving training through the week with the March Break Bronze Challenge. Choose from Junior Lifeguard Club, Bronze Star, Bronze Medallion and Bronze Cross being offered at the Georgetown Indoor Pool.

For further details and registration information, visit www.haltonhills.ca or call the Program Hotline at 905-873-2601, ext. 2275.

Watch for the Town of Halton Hills 2008 Spring and Summer Community Guide to be delivered beginning Feb. 15.

Learn to recruit and keep volunteers

The Town of Halton Hills is offering an interactive workshop with Community Development Halton called Get 'em and Keep 'em— Creative Volunteer Recruitment and Retention on Tuesday, February 19, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at Mold-Masters SportsPlex.

Space is still available for this workshop geared towards anyone or group that works with volunteers. The workshop will address outside the box recruitment, creative retention and recognition ideas that work. Find out not only how to attract the right kind of volunteer to your programs but also how to keep them once they arrive.

To find out how to register for this program, visit the Town of Halton Hills website at www.haltonhills.ca or call 905-873-2601 ext. 2275.

Halton Region to host community forum with Environmental Commissioner of Ontario

Halton residents are invited to attend a community forum with Gord Miller, Environmental Commissioner of Ontario (ECO). Join us on Monday, February 11, 2008, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the Halton Regional Centre Auditorium, 1151 Bronte Road in Oakville. Mr. Miller will be talking about his 2006-2007 annual report, Reconciling Our Priorities, which examines the challenges facing Ontario in creating sustainable communities throughout the province. There will be time after the presentation for Mr. Miller to take questions from the audience.

The ECO is an independent officer of the Legislative Assembly. For more information about the Commissioner or the Environmental Bill of Rights, or to read Reconciling Our Priorities, visit www.eco.on.ca.
