Acton Seniors Centre to hold important AGM in February

JULIE CONROY
Acton Seniors Centre

At last Monday's carpet bowling Ivan Bozic's black team beat Nives Bozic's brown team, 13-8. There were only seven players, but they all enjoyed the game.

The Acton Seniors Centre's Annual General Meeting will be held on Tuesday, Feb. 26, 1:30 p.m. Please try and take the time to attend, as it is your Centre, and this is the one way of showing your support.

On Tuesday, Jan. 15, 14 members accompanied by their friends enjoyed cake and ice cream to celebrate the fact they were born in December or January.

Thirty-six new members have joined the Acton Seniors Centre since September. Half of them managed to join us for the New Members Luncheon on Wednesday, Jan. 16. The Italian luncheon was delicious, thanks to Margaret and Dave Dodgson. It was followed by fresh fruit and ice cream. Members of the Monday line dancing group entertained after, and it was great to see the enthusiasm which affected everyone watching. Many of the board members were present and talked a little about their positions on the board and their responsibilities.

The scrapbooking class met on Monday, Jan. 28 at 6:45 p.m. If you are interested, just show up. They meet once a month.

The toile classes are every Thursday at 7 p.m. If you would like more information, call Margaret Dodgson, 519-853-8855.

Over 30 members attended our social dinner for January. Each brought their favourite dish, so needless to say there was a great variety of food. The Gang from the Hill entertained us, and everyone enjoyed singing to some of their favourite tunes. Annie Saunders, Fran Morris, Steve Palichuk, Nina Palichuk, Harry Van Der Heyden and Joan Bissonnette all won door prizes. Pat Jones won the 50/50.

The Wednesday Evening Euchre was well attended and Donna Rowley had the Lone Hand the High Man was Don Milton, Second Man was Eileen Wedge, High Lady, Betty Brewer and Second Lady Mae Milton. Frances Hogenbirk won the Booby Prize. The next Evening Euchre will be on Wednesday, Feb. 20 at 7 p.m.

The new newsletter will be out shortly so please make sure you pick yours up. Hopefully you find it informative and a little easier to read. If you have any comments or suggestions about the newsletter please put it in writing in my folder in the office.

When I was talking about the Looking to the Future fundraising in last week's column, I forgot to mention that all donations are tax deductible, which helps make our generosity a little easier come income tax time.

Last Thursday morning 12 ladies were enjoying playing canasta (down a little from usual). They miss Leslie and Maria Sallay due to Leslie being in the hospital, and hope to see them back soon. If you would like to play, they start at 10 a.m. and would welcome new players. Fran brought Carol, a new neighbour, in to watch and learn and in no time she was playing herself.

Is there anyone out there that is interested in playing bridge? Once we see how much interest there is we will try and find a time and day that would be suitable. There is a signup sheet.

Penny Bristow won the 50/50 draw two weeks ago.
