Getting the bum's rush

Lana Munn of Christ the King's Jaguars is thwarted by Georgetown Rebel blueliner Kylie McFadyen and goalie Kendra McCutcheon as the two local schools faced off in recent Halton high school girls' hockey action. Casey Lyons scored twice and defender Nikki Somerville potted the winner with five minutes remaining in regulation to give the Rebels a 5-4 victory. Sofia Troop and Courtney Fey also tallied for 3-2-2 Georgetown, with Brittany Metcalfe (2), Lauren Gilpin and Kelsey Eady replying for the 4-3-0 Jags.

DUFFERINrockstar of the week January 26, 2008

Josh Hinzelman

plays for the blue Under-13 indoor soccer team. This is his second experience of indoor soccer, and he says that the Dufferin Centre is a much better place to play than the futsal gym he played before.

He has lots of fun playing an energetic game, and enjoys working in a forward role the best.
