Impact U-17 squad posts comeback win

Capturing their second zone tournament title of the season, the Georgetown Impact under-17 girls have moved up to the Ontario Volleyball Association under-18 Tier II division after their impressive comeback match victory at the Challenge Cup in Whitby.

In the championship final, the Impact took the first game 25-20 from the under-18

Burlington Blaze then lost the second 25-23. The third set took almost 90 minutes to complete, with Burlington grabbing an 8-2 lead before Georgetown rallied thanks in part to the serving of Natalie Meek, eventually prevailing 19-17.

To get to the finals, the under-17 Impact See UNDER-16, pg. 4
