

Challenge the mayor in bowling

Mayor Rick Bonnette and the Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce are taking the challenge by supporting the Big Brothers Big Sisters Bowl for Kids' Sake happening at Georgetown Bowl on Sunday, February 24.

With the Halton Hills community behind Mayor Bonnette's Bowl for Kids' Sake Invitational Challenge, the goal is to raise $10,000 for the Big Brothers Big Sisters of Halton (BBBSH) school-based programs in Halton Hills.

Recently BBBSH, in partnership with the Halton District School Board and the Halton Catholic District School Education, opened two new After-School Club tutoring programs in Acton in the McKenzie-Smith Bennett and St. Joseph schools and two new Go Girls! programs in Georgetown in the Stewarttown and St. Brigid elementary schools. Two more Club tutoring programs will open in Georgetown schools next September.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Halton receives no on-going government funding so it is campaigns like Bowl for Kids' Sake that ensures the agency can continue to reach out to those children most in need of a mentor.

Everyone can make a difference. Enter your team in this year's Bowl for Kids' Sake, considering sponsoring Mayor Bonnette's team or if you are a Chamber member, the Chamber team. Just go to the bbbshalton.ca website and click on the Bowl for Kids' link and sponsor either team. A tax receipt is issued on the spot.

To register your team or sponsor a bowler, check out our website at bbbs-shalton.ca or call 905-339-2355 ext. 222 Big Brothers Big Sisters of Halton is a United Way funded agency.
