

Ambassadors to sing barbershop music tomorrow

LOIS FRASER
Special to The IFP

St. John's United Church is once again hosting the Royal City Ambassadors on Saturday, Feb. 23.

The 40-voice all male singing group from Guelph is coming back to St. John's by popular demand. For the uninitiated, Barbershop is four-part, unaccompanied music. That's right...

just a pitch pipe to get you started and after that it's all up to your ears. It features close-harmony singing, with the melody carried by the second voice, called the "lead." The tenor (counter-tenor) voice harmonizes above the lead singer; bass sings the lowest harmonizing notes, and the baritone provides in-between notes.

Barbershop music is in the style of "the old songs" from the heyday of Tin Pan Alley, circa 1890-1920. Tin Pan Alley is the name given to the collection of New York City-centered music publishers and songwriters who dominated the popular music of the United States in the late 19th century and early 20th century.

Tickets are $15 per person (children under 10 are free) and can be reserved by calling 905-877-2531. Tickets can also be purchased at the door.
