

Sunday school to put on musical

On Sunday, Feb. 24 at 10 a.m., St. John's United Church, 11 Guelph St., will present a musical called Stone Soup.

Two down-on-their-luck con artists, Canny and Small, strike it rich when they convince a small village that they have a magical stone which can make soup. With clever lyrics and quirky characters, the musical, written by well-known contemporary singer/songwriter, Linnea Good, and playwright Scott Douglas, uses catchy tunes and straightforward storytelling to present a story whose message highlights what can be accomplished when a community works together.

The cast, who are all children and youth of St. John's, has been rehearsing the play for the last two months. Stone Soup is directed by Diane Murray-Charett.

You don't need to be a member of St. John's to enjoy the show. All are welcome and admission is free.
