

Jarvis honoured

Alexandra Jarvis was recently honoured by the Ontario Minor Track Association with the Award of Excellence, presented to 20 outstanding athletes in the province who were selected for their high level of achievement and sportsmanship during their minor track career (pre-high school). The 14-year-old Grade 9 Georgetown District High School student was recognized for her results in cross-country, 800m and 1,500m. Jarvis received her award from two of Canada's most successful track and field athletes, high jumper Milt Ottey and Olympic silver medalist sprinter Angela Taylor Issajenko. After suffering an ankle injury in the fall, Jarvis has just now fully recovered and has taken a pass on most indoor races this winter in favour of training for the outdoor season. Submitted photo

DUFFERIN rockstar of the week February 16, 2008

Emily Secord

plays indoor soccer for the white under-11 team on Saturdays at the Dufferin Centre. Her outdoor soccer career with Acton Villa now stretches back more than half her life, although this is her first time playing indoors. She says playing here, usually as a forward or midfielder, is "great fun", and that soccer is her favourite sport among those that she plays.
