GDHS to convene OFSAA swimming

Swimming
The GDHS Rebels will convene this year's OFSAA championships in

Etobicoke in early March and there's a good chance they'll keep many of the medals themselves if regional qualifying meets are any indication. Georgetown had 33 individual swimmers achieve provincial qualifying times Wednesday at the GHAC meet at McMaster University in Hamilton and 11 more relay teams will make the trip to OFSAA as well. Christ the King and Acton also sent swimmers to GHAC and produced some provincial qualifiers as well. Results will appear in next week's edition of The Independent & Free Press.

Hockey

A 4-1 victory over Burlington Central on Tuesday in the opening round of Halton varsity boys' play-offs earned Christ the King's Jaguars a date with one of the top teams in the province in the quarterfinals. The 10-3-0 Jags faced 12-0-1 Notre Dame in Burlington Thursday in the first match of a two-game series, with 9-1-2 Georgetown taking on L.B. Pearson after downing Aldershot 5-0 on Tuesday.

In the girls' opening round, Georgetown played T.A. Blakelock Thursday and Christ the King met up with Loyola.

Child Abuse Breaks Hearts

Child abuse is a far-reaching problem that affects children of all ages, socioeconomic levels and ethnicities. It is every adult's responsibility to help stop child abuse by reporting suspected abuse or neglect. If you believe a child has been harmed, or is in danger of being harmed, call your local department of children and family services or your local police department. If you are a parent, do your best to provide a nurturing, loving home environment for your child. If you need help doing this, there are resources to help you - look online or in the phone book, or ask for assistance through your church or your child's school. If we all do our part to prevent child abuse, we'll get to the heart of the matter.
