Parents help run nursery school

Hornby Cooperative Nursery School holds an Open House and 2008 Program Registration session on Saturday, March 1, 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. for families interested in providing a preschool experience for their children next year.

For the past 31 years, Hornby Cooperative Nursery School has been providing preschool programs for children in Halton Hills, Milton and surrounding areas. To keep the costs as low as possible, families donate their time and resources to operate the facility, through participation in day-to-day classroom activities and committee work.

The overall goal of the school is to provide children with a stimulating environment to promote growth and development. The school is staffed by qualified ECE teachers, and provides healthy nutritious snacks, safe indoor and large outdoor play area and a structured curriculum.

Parents have the flexibility to enroll their children from one to five days per week. Programs are available for children from 2 to 5 years of age, including a morning Nursery School program (9-11:30 a.m.) and an afternoon JK/SK Enrichment program (1-3:30 p.m.).

The school is located at 13526 Steeles Avenue (intersection of Trafalgar Rd, and Steeles Ave.) in Hornby. For more information call 905-878-5211 or e-mail hornbynurseryschool@yahoo.ca.
