Rebels fall to Lords in high school hockey

Nearly pulling off a huge comeback over Burlington's Nelson Lords, the Georgetown Rebels were knocked out of the Halton high school boys' varsity hockey post-season at home Monday afternoon in a sudden-death playoff.

The Rebels lost the opening game of the best-of-3 series 4-2 last Thursday and trailed in Monday's contest before rallying to win 6-5, forcing a mini-game to determine which team would advance to this Thursday's Halton final.

Rob McLay scored for the Lords 3:20 into the overtime period.

Jeff Pierce (3), Mike Parsons (2) and Nic Grasby had the Georgetown goals.

The Rebels' season isn't over, however, as they leave Thursday for a two-week tour of Europe along with Christ the King's boys' team.
