

Gifts galore for hockey's pal Hal

Wellington-Halton Hills MPP Ted Arnott presented Hal Pells with a certificate of appreciation on behalf of the Province of Ontario Monday night. The Town of Halton Hills and the federal government, via a note from Prime Minister Stephen Harper, also paid tribute to the longtime hockey volunteer.

Independent & Free Press advertising manager Steve Foreman congratulates Hal Pells and presents him with a commemorative front page during the ceremony Monday. The Hockey Heritage Council also honoured the newspaper for its 30-year sponsorship of the event—the longest among all sponsors.

Halton Hills Sports Museum president Finn Poulstrup presents Georgetown Hockey Heritage Council award winner Hal Pells with a plaque congratulating him on being named the recipient of the 2008 award at Monday's annual dinner. Pells was also among the first inductees into the sports museum last year in its inaugural induction ceremony.
