Globe needs more cast and crew

Globe's South Pacific will open in seven weeks... and couldn't we all do with a bit of South Pacific this year!

Globe still needs three people to round out the cast and crew.

The part of Harbison (a small but important male speaking part age 20 to 55) is still open.

They need one more sailor (a good singer of any range age 20 to 50) who can be persuaded to move on stage with the rest of the guys (we don't call it dancing, as they are playing a bunch of real sailors). No experience is necessary, just a chance to be on stage if you have always thought that you might like to do this.

And lastly, if you are handy and have some time to swing a hammer to help build sets or you can paint sets, you won't find a hobby that is more fun! It's a great activity for retired couples too.

If you can do any of this, please call Lois Fraser at 905-877-4411 or Joe Gomes at 905-791-0045.

Children's Chorus to give Taste of the Maritimes

After another successful Charity Book Sale this past November local business, Fraser Direct has donated $1,000 from the proceeds of the sale to the Georgetown Children's Chorus.

Lois Fraser explained that "Several parents and kids from the choir have volunteered over the years, although there was no financial benefit to do so. This is our way of saying thanks."

The Georgetown Children's Chorus, now singing for its 16th season, is currently rehearsing for their annual Spring concert A Taste of the Maritimes. The concerts will be held at the John Elliott Theatre in the Halton Hills Cultural Centre on Friday, March 28 and two shows on Saturday, March 29. Tickets will be available at the JET Box Office, 905-877-3700.
