GLT honours two veteran members

CARLY BRAVO
Georgetown Little Theatre

Recently the Georgetown Little Theatre adult group and the youth company, as well as many family members gathered together for an evening of good food, music and conversation.

However, there was another and more important reason for this gathering. It was an opportunity to recognize two very special individuals, who have made an outstanding contribution to Georgetown Little Theatre Productions.

Anthea Hoare, current president of the executive, presented Ron and Dorothy Hunt with Honourary Lifetime memberships of the Georgetown Little Theatre.

Ron and Dorothy have been known as the driving force behind the group for over 40 years.

Ron Hunt has directed, performed, built and designed sets for more than 150 shows. Added to that he was president of the executive for 18 years.

His wife Dorothy was the costume co-ordinator for the entire group for many years. She also served on the executive in every capacity at one time and another. Dorothy's energy and drive were very evident when she spearheaded the fundraising and then the building of the group's home in Stewarttown— twice. The first time when GLT managed to acquire the old Esquesing Town Hall to be their forever home, and again when the hall burned down in 1997.

Both were very pleased by the recognition, and thanked everyone for their support.

Ron said, "I have loved every minute of this work." He followed that with some anecdotes of his time with the group.

The speeches were topped off with a group singalong of For they are Jolly Good Fellows led by Ron himself!

The members all gave wonderful compliments about the couple.

When asked for one thing he would like to say about Ron and Dorothy, Paul d'Entremont replied, "When I think of GLT, I think of Ron and Dorothy. They've known me longer than I've known myself. It's a privilege."

Cathy Hunt (no relation to the couple) expressed her appreciation, "Ron and Dorothy are the backbone of the group and have been strong supporters from day one."

When asked what one memory the couple will always have about the Georgetown Little Theatre, Ron answered, "I don't know of any other hobby more rewarding better than little theatre."
