New artist joins Artisans' Attic fold

The artists of the Artisans' Attic welcome the addition of a new member—gifted photographer Andrea McClure.

McClure brings a whole new visual art form—digital photography—to the co-operative of artisans. With a B.A. in Fine Arts from University of Toronto and over 20 years experience McClure's talents include photographing nature, architecture and people. Now she examines a new graphic twist by incorporating digital photography that furthers her creativity and freedom. The final effects are wonderfully dramatic images.

The Artisan's Attic, an artisan's co-operative that houses the original work of more than 20 dynamic artists is in its 12th year on Main Street in downtown Georgetown. The abundance of skilled and beautiful work displayed at this store/gallery includes functional and decorative pottery, weaving, basketry, jewelry, original paintings and limited edition prints, photography, stained glass, blown glass, papier mache, fibre arts, metal sculpture and so much more.

The Artisan's Attic at 73 Main Street South, Georgetown, is manned by the membership artists who can be seen working at their craft during store hours, Monday to Friday, 10 a.m. to 6
