Project SAFEGUARD

Have you ever wondered if your home is vulnerable to a break and enter? What simple things can be done to improve the security of your home?

The Halton Regional Police Service is continuing its crime prevention service PROJECT SAFEGUARD

Between April 5th and May 4th, 2008, members of the Halton Regional Police Auxiliary Unit will be offering free external home inspections to residents of Halton. At the conclusion of the one hour inspection, homeowners will receive a written report outlining any suggestions to improve the overall security of their homes.

To book an appointment, please call 905-825-4747 ext. 4720.

"Crime is not randomly distributed, it results from the convergence in time and space of a potential criminal with a suitable target, in a location and situation that favours the offender."
