Electricity Distributors Association, EDA

Bryan Boyce

The Board of Directors of the Electricity Distributors Association (EDA) is pleased to announce that Bryan Boyce, Chair of Halton Hills Hydro Inc., has been elected Chair of the 2008/2009 EDA Board of Directors.

Mr. Boyce is a researcher and consultant in the electricity industry and brings to the position many years of experience in managing electricity utility sector regulatory issues. He has held positions with Ontario Hydro Services Company and Ontario Hydro as a Senior Advisor of Regulatory Research specializing in Stakeholder and Government Relations, and as a Senior Public Hearings Analyst. He also has extensive background in Ontario Energy Board Rates Hearings. Mr. Boyce has been the Central and Upper Canada District Director on the EDA Board since 2005 and is also Chair of Halton Hills Fibre Optics Inc. He is a former Chair of the Town of Halton Hills Environmental Advisory Committee, Past Chairman of the Natural Areas and Wildlife Committee, Conservation Council of Ontario, and is a Past President of the Soil and Water Conservation Society Ontario Chapter.

The Electricity Distributors Association (EDA) is the voice of Ontario's local electricity distributors, the publicly and privately owned companies that safely and reliably deliver electricity to over four million Ontario homes, businesses and public institutions.
