

Cops fundraising for Special Olympics

Halton Police will be at Georgetown Market Place tomorrow (Saturday) to collect money for the law enforcement torch run that supports Special Olympics Ontario.

Officers wearing Torch Run t-shirts will be collecting money in buckets emblazoned with the Law Enforcement Torch Run logo at the mall from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Several Special Olympians are also expected to be in attendance.

Special Olympics is a year-round international sports training and athletic competition program for children and adults with special needs.

The program provides opportunities to develop fitness and participate in the excitement of sports events.

Halton Police sponsors the Law Enforcement Torch Run, which raises money and builds awareness for the Special Olympic program.

All money raised in Halton Region stays within the community to support local athletes.

Working to find solutions to financing growth in Halton

The Ontario government recently announced funding for municipal infrastructure – funding that will help us get the roads and bridges in place to accommodate growth and to address social housing needs. While this funding is good news for Halton, Halton Region is facing significant challenges financing growth-related infrastructure. Halton needs additional financial commitments from the Provincial and Federal governments to help us meet the challenge of growth. Halton Region will keep the momentum going with the Fairness for Halton Campaign, and we will continue to work with the Provincial and Federal governments to find solutions. Visit our website at www.halton.ca and advocate with us to make sure Halton stays a great place to live, work, raise a family, and retire.
