Halton Hills Clean Up Day

Saturday, April 19, 2008

On Saturday April 19, during the 8th annual Halton Hills Clean Up Day, hundreds of individuals and organizations will hit the streets, parks, trails, vacant lots, and rural roads filling garbage bags with the trash revealed by the melting winter snow. Whenever possible, separate garbage into wood piles, metal piles, tires, and garbage.

If you or your group would like to participate, please call the Town of Halton Hills Public Works Department at 905-873-2601 ext. 2610 to register and to receive additional information.

High school students are reminded that they can use clean up hours towards their volunteer requirements if the hours can be verified.
