Guest designer helps local business celebrate its 40th anniversary

Bergsma's Paint & Wallpaper in the Georgetown Market Place celebrates its 40th anniversary with a special event for their customers.

The family-run business will be hosting Leigh-Ann Allaire Perrault, a designer from Benjamin Moore/City TV to their store for free consultations next weekend.

As an Honours Graduate in Interior Decorating from Sheridan College, Allaire Perrault has experience in both commercial and residential design, and understands the kind of assistance and direction homeowners often need when planning a new look for their homes.

As a Colour & Design expert at Benjamin Moore's Central Canada office, Allaire Perrault prepares detailed design plans for Benjamin Moore Signature Store locations in Central Canada. She adds her design flair and knowledge of retail store planning to new construction plans as well as revitalizing the interiors of existing stores.

Returning to her roots, Allaire Perrault joined the Sheridan College faculty in 2007 as a part-time instructor of Business for the Interior Decorating pro-

Allaire Perrault is a member of the team that developed the Colours for Your Home colour trend card and recently rolled up her sleeves and joined the Benjamin Moore Design Team as they animated current styles in their latest home makeover project. Along with being a member of the Colour Marketing Group, an International colour forecasting organization, she can often be seen showcasing her flair for colour on City TV's CityLine.

Allaire Perrault will be at Bergsma's Paint & Wallpaper store for the 40th anniversary on Saturday, April 26. The public can book a free 15-minute in store consult with the designer between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.
