U-16s have big Impact on provincials

Playing against opponents who were mostly a year older than they were, Georgetown's under-16 Impact wasn't daunted, earning gold medals at the Ontario Volleyball Association under-17 girls' Tier II championships in Kingston earlier this month.

Some of the Impact's more difficult tests came early on as the local side went on to sweep through its final three matches without dropping a set.

Georgetown, seeded second out of 16 teams, defeated the Niagara U-17 Rapids 25-13, 25-23, Cambridge U-16 Hawks 23-25, 25-12, 15-9 and Aurora U-17 Storm Vortex 25-16, 25-22 to finish first in the preliminary round pool.

In the first playoff round, the Impact was nearly upset by the 15th-ranked Stratford U-17 Stingers, prevailing 21-25, 25-16, 15-11. Georgetown then beat the Chatham U-17 Ballhawks 25-12 in the quarter-finals, the Ottawa U-17 Black Jacks 25-21, 25-18 in the semis and in the championship match the Impact dismissed under-16 rival Ottawa National Capitals 25-20, 25-23.

Two Impact players, power hitter Arissa Fogolin and libero Hillary Banks, were selected to the provincial tournament all-star team.
