GlenStar partners with POWER for charity fundraiser

The GlenStar Leadership Program made a huge splash at the Glen Williams Town Hall last Saturday with Fun in the Sun, a beach party for young children.

Over 100 people turned out for this event which included a limbo contest, parachute games, a fish pond and digging for buried treasure. The celebration was a fundraiser for P.O.W.E.R. (Protect Our Water and Environmental Resources) of North Halton. P.O.W.E.R. recently joined with GlenStar in a workshop to create their own pledge to the environment. The kids signed off on this oath which fuelled their enthusiasm for last weekend's charity beach party.

"It wasn't just about having a beach party," says Amy Kelleher, director of GlenStar Programs. "These kids made a pledge to help save their planet and are sticking to it! I am so proud of these young leaders who did their very best to help a worthwhile organization like

P.O.W.E.R."

The GlenStar Leadership Program, which runs on Saturday mornings throughout the school year, builds teamwork and leadership skills for youth in Halton Hills ages 10-15.

GlenStar will be showcasing its Visual and Performing Arts Summer Camps with a free spring workshop this Sunday, April 27 at the Glen Williams Town Hall, 2-4 p.m. For more information about GlenStar's Programs for kids, visit www.glenstarcamp.ca or call Amy Kelleher at 905-877-0783.
