

Marion Carney to lead Legion Ladies Auxiliary for 2008-09 term

JANET MALLOY

Georgetown Legion Ladies Auxiliary

Branch 120 Georgetown Legion Ladies Auxiliary's new executive for the term of 2008-2009 are the following:

Marion Carney, president; Mary Russell, past-president; Liz McNeilly, first vice; Grace Harrison, second vice; Debbie Smith, secretary who was appointed;

Heather Otten, treasurer; Nellie Scheeringa, Sgt.-at-Arms; Jean Armonas, sports officer; Sheila Hicks, membership; and executive members: Linda Armstrong, Norma Frost, Sheila Hicks, Amy Hole, Jane Joga, Patricia Rae and Gerda Stefan. Congratulations to all! The new executive starts in June.

Remember ladies, our meetings are every third Thursday at 8 p.m. We do not meet in July or August. Our next general meeting is May 15 at 8 p.m.

To our shut-ins and those who are under the weather, please know we think of you often!

The Branch 120 Royal Canadian Legion Col. G.B.S. Cousins Branch Georgetown had their 80th anniversary this Saturday past. Comrade Doug Weir spearheaded the commemorative booklet and he did a wonderful job! Thank you Comrade Doug for the kind words about Ladies Auxiliary that appeared in the commemorative booklet.

Triple P - Positive Parenting Program

Small Group Series for Parents of Teens and Pre-Teens

All parents can benefit from additional support. Halton Region is offering Triple P (Positive Parenting Program) free of charge to parents. The program is delivered by accredited Triple P practitioners.

What is Triple P? Triple P helps parents:

- manage their child's behaviour in a constructive and caring way
- develop good communication and strong relationships with their children
- learn positive parenting skills that may be applied to a broad range of parenting situations

Children and youth who grow up with positive parenting are more likely to feel good about themselves and develop to their full potential.

Who can attend? Parents/caregivers of teens and pre-teens

Where: North Halton Mental Health Clinic, 217 Main St. East Milton, ON

When: May 7, 13, 20, 27, June 3, 24, 2008
