New minister welcomed

Rev. Nader Awad (centre) is welcomed by Marion Viant (left) clerk of session at Norval Presbyterian Church and Marion Lookman, the clerk of session at Union Presbyterian Church at a special Service of Recognition in April. Rev. Awad joined the two-point congregational charge in late 2007 as a stated supply but has recently been appointed by the Presbyterian Church as the interim minister for the two churches for the next two-year period.

Ministerial Association hosts free Community Unity Day

All of the churches in town are uniting to host an event to promote unity in the community.

The first-ever Community Unity Day will be held on May 10, organized by the Georgetown and Area Ministerial Association.

The morning will be spent doing yard cleanups (raking leaves, mowing lawns, cleaning out flowerbeds, sweeping driveways, etc.) for those in need of assistance (such as the elderly, disabled, single parents, etc.) Yard cleanups will take place from 9 a.m. to noon.

The afternoon portion of the event will be a "fun day" held at Cedarvale Park from 11:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. and will feature hotdogs and drinks, a tea room for seniors, lots of activities for kids (face painting, games, craft tables, etc.) and music bands for entertainment.

This entire event is being offered free of charge and is open to the entire community.

The goal is to make Community Unity Day an annual event and to keep our great community just that...GREAT!

So come on out, bring your friends and family and spend the afternoon; you'll have a great time.
