

Youths honour veterans with Candlelight Tribute

Nearly 1,100 students and teachers observed a moment of remembrance (above) Thursday as they placed candles on the Cenotaph, during the sixth annual Candlelight Tribute at Georgetown Cenotaph. The event was an act of remembrance for the veterans in observance of Victory in Europe Day. (Left) Georgetown veteran Lorne Hunter and Royal Canadian Air Cadet Sgt. Laura Crawford of 756 Squadron shared a light moment as she thanked the veterans for their contribution to world peace. (Top left) Perched high above Remembrance Park on Halton Hills Fire Department's aerial ladder, Independent & Free Press staffer Jenn Spencer captured the crowd as they converged on the park.
