

Food adventure: Serving up mealworm fudge

Welcome to Bugfeast Candyland! There are plenty of reasons to eat bugs! Not only are they high in protein and low in fat, but insects are also very tasty!

If you don't believe us, then try them for yourself! Wings of Paradise has invited Chef Jeff Stewart of creepycrawlycooking.com to prepare a special Candyland menu for this year's Bugfeast.

So, tempt your tastebuds with three samples made with REAL INSECTS!

- Roasted Mealworm Fudge

Lori Gysel & Gerry Kentner

- Chocolate Cricket Clusters
- Blue Anty-floss

Don't believe this is true? Well, this was the information put out by the Wings of Paradise Butterfly Conservatory.

And, Dave and Gerry, ever searching for new food adventures took their grandson— Alex— there during March Break.

And, it's true, they did have all these dishes made from bugs. Alex (who is my oldest son) dove right in and tried everything— roasted mealworm fudge, chocolate cricket clusters, blue anty floss (just like candyfloss, but somehow made from ants) and there were also scorpion lollipops (real lollipops with a scorpion in the centre of each one).

I can't even begin to imagine what it would be like once you got down to licking the spider!

Although Alex tried it all, Dave and Gerry both politely declined. I would have too! You just never know what someone will come up with next.

Apparently there were lots of parents and grandparents there with their kids during March Break and most of the kids were trying the samples— I do believe there was substantially more boy children there than girl children. Surprise, surprise!

Have fun and keep cooking (not necessarily with bugs)!

Asparagus Soup

Ingredients

- 1 and 1/2 lbs asparagus, washed (approximately 1 large bunch)
- 2 small onions peeled and chopped fine or 1/2 spanish onion
- 2 tbsp butter or margarine
- 6 cups vegetable or chicken stock
- 1 1/2 cup 35% cream
- salt and freshly ground pepper

browning till translucent. Add the asparagus stalks and stock and simmer for approximately 25 minutes.

Cool slightly, then puree in a food processor. Return to pot and add cream, the asparagus tips and salt and pepper to taste. Reheat and serve.

Serves 6

Method

Cut or break off the asparagus tips and simmer for 2-4 minutes in one inch of boiling water. Drain and set aside.

Blanch the tough ends of asparagus and cut the good stalks into one-inch pieces.

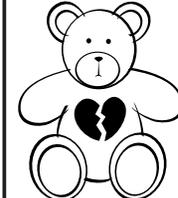

Sauté the onion in a saucepan without

Where Child Abuse Hurts Most

Sometimes the worst scars of child abuse can't be seen. Whether physical or emotional, abuse attacks a child's self-esteem and emotional development, leaving long-term emotional trauma and pain. You can help prevent child abuse by being a nurturing parent or caregiver. By letting children know they are special, competent and loved, you can help them develop positive self-images and happier futures.

If you feel overwhelmed, angry or frustrated as a parent, help is out there for you. Look in your area for support groups and services, or talk to a trusted friend, family member, pastor or doctor about what you can do to protect and support your child. If we all do our part to prevent child abuse, we'll get to the heart of the matter.
