Youth honoured for their contributions to this community

In honour of International Youth Week, April 28-May 4, the Mayor's Youth Action Committee recognized youth in our community at a special awards celebration at the Halton Hills Civic Centre on May 1. The award winners were recognized for promoting a positive image of young people and generating awareness of the value of the contributions youth can make. On this page and the following pages are profiles of the outstanding youth who received Youth Recognition Awards. As well, MYAC hosted a Coffee House at the Starlight Café in Acton on Sunday, May 4 to highlight local youth musical talent.

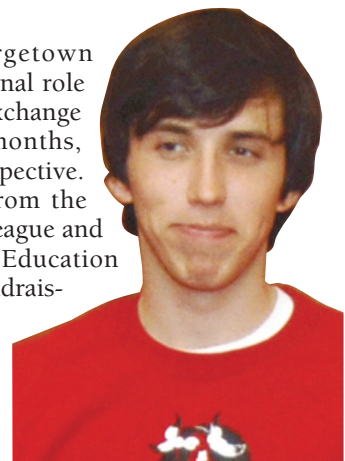

Robin Jupiter was among the performers who showcased their musical talents at the MYAC Coffee House. More performers on pgs. 2, 3, 4.

Tyler Brown

Tyler is a current student at Georgetown District High School, who is an inspirational role model. Tyler participated in the Rotary Exchange Program and lived in Mexico for six months, which helped to broaden his global perspective. Tyler has applied his new knowledge from the Exchange Program to the Social Justice League and the Georgetown Rebels Environmental Education Network. He is currently assisting in fundraising initiatives for a project with Habitat for Humanity, and the CN Tower Climb for World Wildlife Foundation. Tyler is an active member of the Mayor's Youth Action Committee.

Michelle Boulanger

Michelle is a Grade 8 student at Holy Cross School, who volunteers weekly with the Holy Cross Parish in Georgetown. She also spends time volunteering with the Georgetown Bread Basket and is actively involved in fundraising initiatives. Michelle's watercolour painting was featured at a school silent auction that raised $800 for cancer. She has also participated in the Future Forests of Halton Hills and has volunteered at the Knights Table in Brampton, serving food for the homeless. Michelle also organized a Thanksgiving Luncheon at her school for 120 students, the biggest Thanksgiving dinner ever to take place at Holy Cross.
