MYAC art competition

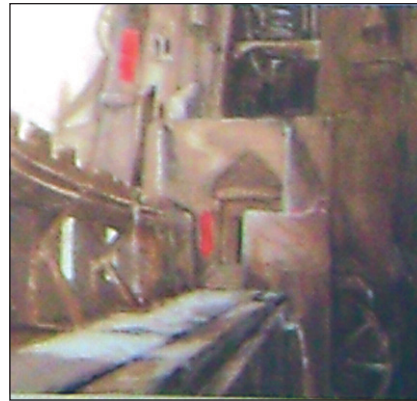

In addition to honouring the Youth Recognition Award recipients, young local artists were showcased for their artistic talents. Throughout the past several months, over 80 pieces of art were entered into the 7th Annual MYAC Art Competition. These submissions were reviewed and selections have been made for three different categories by a committee made up of the Mayor of Halton Hills Rick Bonnette, local artist Susan Little and the Mayor's Youth Action Committee members. The presentation of the Arts Competition Winners was held in conjunction with the Youth Recognition Awards evening.
