Family Health Team

Nurse Practitioner/ Community Mental Health Worker/Dietician

The East Wellington Family Health Team (EWFHT) offers the opportunity to join an innovative, community-based primary health care team serving the Erin and Rockwood area. We are looking for outstanding team players to join us as we create a model of excellence in rural primary care. We are currently recruiting for 3 Allied Health Professionals; 1 full-time Nurse Practitioner, 1 full-time Community Mental Health Worker and 1 part-time Dietician.

You will work within a collaborative and multidisciplinary team of physicians, nurses, nurse practitioners, and other allied health professionals to provide direct clinical care focusing on disease prevention, chronic disease management and health promotion in a rural and small town setting.

The ideal candidate for these positions will have demonstrated experience in:

- Proven ability to work collaboratively as part of a highly interdependent team, ideally involving health professionals.
- Strong interpersonal, organizational, partnership development and risk management skills
- Exceptional communication (written and oral), decision making and problem solving skills
- Proficiency and experience working in a computerized environment.
- Sound judgment, tact and diplomacy with an emphasis on discretion and confidentiality
- The flexibility required to work in a rapidly changing environment
- Broad knowledge of community/primary health care and a appreciation of the requirements of rural health care provision
- Familiarity with East Wellington and the spectrum of health and social services available
- A license to provide health care in Ontario
- Three to five years experience in providing direct clinical care as a registered nurse or other allied health professional

Qualifications

Nurse Practitioner

The Nurse Practitioner is responsible for provision of primary health care services in accordance with the standards of Practice for Registered Nurses in the Expanded Services for Patients Act. The position has a strong emphasis on health promotion and disease prevention. You will function interdependently with other members of the primary care services within the East Wellington Team to promote healthy lifestyle choices for the residents of the community.

This requires:

- Nursing diploma or baccalaureate degree in nursing from a recognized college or university.
- Current and valid registration in the Extended Class with the College of Nurses of Ontario.
- Maintain and develop professional competence through appropriate continuing education.
- Current Member in NPAO in good standing

Community Mental Health Worker

The Community Mental Health Worker provides counseling, support and treatment planning in collaboration with other staff for the clients of the East Wellington Family Health Team and their families, and participates in community mental health education to optimize client health in the community. This requires:

- Diploma in Mental Health and addictions from a recognized college.
- Master's degree in psychology or social work and certification from a recognized university.
- Certification or eligibility for membership in the Ontario Association of Professional Social Workers.

Dietician

The Dietician plans and directs the nutritional care of clients of the East Wellington Family Health Team and participates in community health education to promote better nutrition and healthy lifestyle choices for the residents of the community. This requires:

- University degree in foods and nutrition from a recognized university.
- Current registration with the College of Dieticians of Ontario and Dieticians of Canada.

The East Wellington Family Health Team is an equal opportunity employer that offers attractive compensation and benefits, a supportive and flexible work environment and the opportunity to help create quality local health services for people in the Erin/Rockwood area.

This is an exciting time to be part of the EWFHT. If your skills and experience match the requirements of this position, please forward your resume in confidence to Michelle Karker, michelle.karker@ewfht.ca by June 20, 2008. A full job description is available upon request.

We thank all applicants for their interest, however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

DEATH

William Hay Heaven
1921-2008

Beloved husband of Dorothy, father of four and grandfather of six, Bill died on Saturday, June 14, 2008, in Georgetown, Ont. Born in Ottawa on Jan. 2, 1921, Bill moved to Orillia at the age of eight with his mother and two brothers, after his father, an Anglican priest covering three parishes, died of pneumonia. He joined the Canadian Air Force in 1941 and served in remote radar posts in Newfoundland and British Columbia as a sergeant of communication until the end of the war. In 1951, he married an Orillia girl, Dorothy Bunker, and with the help of a government loan for veterans and experience gleaned from the war, enrolled in the University of Toronto's electrical engineering program. After graduation, he worked on radar and broadcasting in Belleville, Ont., for Northern Electric Co., now Nortel, before transferring to London, Ont., to work on telephone research and development. Active in his church, his community and his workplace, Bill was a truly good man, never shying from adversity to stand up for his principles and the rights of others. In the late 1960's, he helped establish the Urban League of London, a city-wide civic activism group. After he retired, he worked in India and travelled to China as a volunteer for the Canadian Executive Service Organization. He never stopped enjoying life nor people; in his later years he earned his amateur pilot's licence, took up skydiving and travelled the world with his wife. When he developed Alzheimer's disease, he accepted that, too, with dignity and remarkable forbearance. He will be missed by his many friends, but mostly by his family, whom he cherished. Bill will be buried beside his parents at St. James Cemetery in Orillia in a private family ceremony. A memorial will also be erected at the family cottage near Marmora, Ont., his nirvana. Donations to the Alzheimer Society would be welcome. To send expressions of sympathy visit www.jsjonesandsonfuneralhome.com

IN MEMORIAM

EDMUNDS, Ruth
Forever in our hearts Mom.

To a good life came a peaceful end,
She died as she lived, everyone's friend,
Upright and just in all her ways,
Loving and kind to the end of her days.
We saw her suffer, heard her sigh,
We could do nothing but sit close by,
We have lost, but Heaven has gained,
One of the best the world contained.

*Love you,
Children, Grandchildren and Great-Grandchild, Riley*
