Art show focus is on nature

semi-precious stones and fossils set in silver and gold.

In Jackie Osmond Patrick's most recent work photography has become her primary focus, as it is a more immediate way to communicate visually and connect to the world. For her organic forms appear sensual and abstract.

These artists will display their works amongst the natural art created by the Earth herself. Gemstones and crystals from around the world will be on display. Each stone is an individual and carries its own story.

The art show will open Friday, 3-8 p.m. during which time you will have the opportunity to experience the art of Dave Rankine first hand. He will be creating one-of-a-kind henna art that you can wear home.

The show will move to the street on Saturday and become a part of the Festival on Main.

Garneau says, "this will be my fourth year participating in the festival and every year I am amazed by the talent and enthusiasm." She will be displaying her crystals and offering intuitive readings during the festival.

The show will be run throughout the month of July at 66 Main St. S., and can be viewed Fridays, 3-8 p.m., or by appointment. For more information you can contact Garneau, 905-783-8853 or at www.chanalgarneau.com
