Gymnasts place in top-10 at Eastern Canadian meet

A couple of Halton Hills Gymnastics Centre athletes had top-10 individual finishes and team success as well at the Men's Eastern Canadian Championships recently in Longueuil, Que.

Marc de Lestard finished third overall out of nine gymnasts in the highest division, Level 6, for the boys' 16 & over age group, earning second place on high bar, third on parallel bars, fourth on pommel and rings, fifth on floor and sixth on vault.

In the team category, de Lestard held strong marks along with his fellow Ontario athletes, earning gold medals.

Riley Dodds finished eighth overall out of 14 gymnasts in the Level 3 division for the boy's 13+ age group, which included a fourth-place result on rings and a fifth on pommel. For the team category competition, Dodds performed well in his division, with team Ontario placing second behind champion Quebec.

About 65 athletes representing four provinces— Ontario, Quebec, Newfoundland and Nova Scotia— competed at the meet.

Golf roundup

Biehn third at Linkster event

Georgetown's Callum Biehn shot a round of 88 to finish third in the boys' 11-12 age group at the Canadian Junior Golf Association's Linkster Series event held Sunday at the Muskoka Highlands course.

Biehn finished nine shots back of the winner, Owen Bates of Mississauga.

Callum's brother Ryan placed 12th in the boys' 13 & under category after rounds of 88-101 last weekend in the CJGA's Nike Golf Junior Series/SAC qualifier at the South Muskoka Curling & Golf Club.

This weekend, the CJGA's 36-hole Ontario PGA Junior Open will take place at the Blue Springs Golf Club in Acton and several local-area youths are expected to take part.

Swartz second

North Halton Golf & Country Club member Candice Swartz recorded two rounds of 92 to place runner-up at the Maple Leaf Junior Golf Tour Ontario Series stop over the weekend at the Osprey Valley layout in Alton.

The 16-year-old also earned the Sundog KP award.

Another Georgetown teen, Brendan Heinz, finished 17th at the MLJGT event in Alton in the boys' 14-16 division with scores of 84-81.
