TVO at Park School

TV Ontario cameraman Ken Hillier was recently filming in the junior kindergarten class room at Park Public School, as TVO is planning to release a Get Ready for School series which will be aired in August. The series, which will be 12 minutes each, will give kids starting to school a feel for what is expected as they attend school. The series will also have a website backup for parents, at www.tvoparents.com

Sending a message

Students in Meghan Uhlik's Grade 5 class at St. Brigid's Catholic School worked hard to send a message out to the rest of the school to avoid using drinks in disposable and recyclable containers, opting for reusable containers instead. The class recorded how many days they used re-usable container, and have accumulated more than 100 days with re-usable containers. They collected and displayed water bottle and juice boxes that were used by others to make their point. On hand for the photo were Grade 5 students (from left) Carter Lefneski, Cameron Romanef, Jack Galvao, and Kaitlin Koppers.
