

Cadets on parade

Following their annual parade and inspection at the John Roaf Barber Armoury on Todd Road, award winners of the 676 Lorne Scots Royal Canadian Army Cadet Corps assembled for a photo. In front, from left, MCpl Z. Sainsbury (Best Shot, third year), Pte. S. Morris (Best Shot, first year), Pte. C. Patjas (Best first year cadet), and MCpl R. Sevigny (Best second year cadet). In back, Pte. D. Coulter (Best Shot, second year), MCpl M. Bruce (Best Overall Cadet, Best Third Year Cadet), MWO M. Grant (Best Senior Cadet, Cadet Service Medal, Gold Star), MCpl E. Holland (Royal Canadian Legion Medal of Excellence and Initiative), Sgt. M. Serrano (Lorne Scots Regimental Assn Most Improved Cadet) and MCpl S. Slingsby (Junior Leadership). (Right) Sgt M. Serrano lines up the cadets in preparation of their parade and inspection.

Photos by Ted Brown

A long way from home

Captain Tim Blakesley of Georgetown conducts a pre-flight inspection of the TACNAV station on board a Canadian Forces CP-140 Aurora Long Range Patrol aircraft recently. Capt. Blakesley is currently the Standards Tactical Navigator and instructor at 404 Maritime Patrol and Training Squadron at Greenwood, Nova Scotia. He is qualified as a Maritime Patrol Crew Commander, has more than 6,700 flying hours on the Aurora and Sea King helicopter and has completed 26 years of service. Capt. Blakesley attended George Kennedy Public School and Centennial Middle School in Georgetown and has "fond memories of playing hockey in the Georgetown Minor Hockey Association."

Department of National Defence photo by 14 Wing Imaging

232 Guelph Street
Georgetown, Ontario
www.atlantisathletics.com
905 877-0771

JOIN NOW!! Get the Summer FREE*

Offer
expires
July 7
2008

Georgetown's largest and most established fitness facility.

Largest Selection of Workout and Cardio Machines
Personal Training • Semi-Private Training • Group Fitness Classes
Juice Bar • Pro Shop • Saunas • Free Weights • Day Care

Home of the Guaranteed Results Program!

Call today to book your personalized tour.

* Some conditions may apply. See club for details. * Offer valid on annual PAP membership only.

* All club members must comply with club rules and undergo a fitness assessment.

NO ENROLLMENT FEE NO INITIATION FEE NO CARD FEE

