Acton Seniors Centre's garage sale 'Looks to the Future'

Acton Seniors Centre held a fundraising garage sale this month to raise funds for their Looking to the Future campaign. The Centre is raising funds for the future enhancement and expansion of the popular and active place for seniors in the Acton community. Above, garage sale reception greeter Wilda Tressell aids Dave Dodgson who is seeking some summer reading while left, Fern Jory ponders a more active summer.

Helpline for seniors

Halton Hills seniors recently enjoyed a luncheon at Georgetown Alliance Church, as an information meeting was held to build awareness of the Halton Seniors Helpline. The service, operated by Seniors And Law-enforcement Together (SALT) helped seniors with concerns about support, programs or incidences of neglect or abuse. On hand to kick off the program were (from left) Darlene Cox of Halton Seniors Helpline Oakville/SALT chair, Ruth Michasiw, Halton Hills member of SALT, Halton Regional Police Services Const. Jackie Brennan, Elder Services Coordinator and Halton Hills SALT chair Wilfred Gray. For more information on the Helpline, check out www.haltonseniorshelpline.ca or call 1-866-457-8252.

Senior serenade

'Crooner James' wowed a few of the ladies as he sang a number of crooning songs to entertain at the Seniors Month Celebrations at the Gellert Community Centre recently. Seniors enjoyed music and dancing at the celebration.
