

Meet Halton Hills' car dealers

ACHILLES PELITIS JR. (ACHILLES MAZDA)

Achilles Pelitis Jr. has been running the family business since 2000. He is the owner and dealer principal of Achilles Mazda, which has been operating in Acton for 31 years. In his job, Achilles gets to spend time with both his clients and his employees.

"I enjoy helping clients find the right product and making it as easy as possible," he says. "I also enjoy it when my employees are successful."

DAVE HASSELL (HASSELL AUTOMOTIVE SALES & SERVICE)

When Dave Hassell started his business 24 years ago, all he had was a jack and a few hand tools. Today, Hassell Automotive Sales & Service has grown into one of Halton Hills' leading used vehicles dealers. As the owner, major car purchaser and head technician, Dave is still actively involved in the business.

"I really like meeting people," he says. "I've made a lot of friends from my business."

JOHN MUSIAL (GEORGETOWN CHEVROLET)

John Musial, the general sales manager at Georgetown Chevrolet, has loved the car business ever since he first got involved in it more than 30 years ago. He joined the team at Georgetown Chevrolet three months ago after working at other dealerships in the area.

"I've worked all around Georgetown and Brampton for my entire car career," John says. "I invite all my past customers and friends to come visit me at Georgetown Chevrolet."

JOHN VAN ROOYEN (GEORGETOWN KIA)

John Van Rooyen is the general manager of Georgetown Kia. He worked at another Georgetown car dealership before joining the Dixieland Auto Group six years ago, where he managed Kia dealerships in Mississauga and Oakville. Now he's back in Georgetown.

"I enjoyed working in Georgetown very much," he says. "I jumped at the opportunity to come back here and be involved in the community."

CLIFF ALKERTON (GEORGETOWN CHRYSLER JEEP)

Cliff Alkerton may be the new guy at Georgetown Chrysler Jeep, but he's definitely not new when it comes to Chrysler vehicles.

He has been working at Chrysler dealerships since 1983 and joined the Georgetown team as sales manager six weeks ago.

"I'm excited about being in Georgetown," he says. "It's a wonderful community. So far the people have been great."

JOHN HADEN (CONCEPT FORD)

John Haden really likes working in Halton Hills. He has worked at Concept Ford in Georgetown for the 12 years and has been the sales manager for the last four.

"It's a fun community. Everybody seems to know each other. I meet and see people here that I see around town or at the mall," he says. "Dealing with people is the best part for me. It's something different every day."

KEVIN WOOD (GEORGETOWN TOYOTA)

Kevin Wood is one of the founding fathers of Georgetown Toyota. As the president of the locally owned and operated dealership, he has been with the business since it opened 11 years ago. With 25 years of experience in the auto sales industry, Kevin knows the key to success.

"We're very customer oriented here. It's a team effort," he says. "That's what it's all about."

ROBERT TASI (KIA SUPERSTORE)

For Robert Tasi, customer service is the most important part of selling cars. As the general manager at Georgetown's Kia Superstore for the last seven months, he has enjoyed getting to know the people of Halton Hills and helping them buy the car of their dreams.

"We're trying to make the experience eventful and fun," he says. "We're creating close customer relationships within the community."
