After facing each other in the finals at a recent 2009 USFA World Series qualifier in Mississauga, the two Halton Hills bantam Hawks' teams got together for a group photo, thrilled to know that they'll both have a chance to play in the prestigious fastpitch tournament next year in Florida thanks to their 1-2 finish. Members of the teams are: 1993 bantam coach Janet Allison (forefront). Second row: Katie Tilley, Olivia Sroka, Michelle Scanlan, Erin Rolanty, Daniella Berdusco, Becky Rabchuk, Cassie Lloyd, Carole Allison. Third row: Tara Kelly, Katie Batista, Brittany Petrou, Ashley Allan, Emily Stea, Carleigh Monk, Emily Benson, coach Tony Kelly. Back row: Coach Adam Moroney, Melissa Moroney, Sarah Murphy, coach Geri Moroney, Greg Monk, Chelsea Pronkewich, Leah Mark, 1992 coach Rich Besworth, Alicia Thompson-Cappadoccio, Jaclyn Moody, Luis Batista, coach Joe Stea.

Two Halton Hills teams qualify for World Series

Bantam Hawks doubly pleased

When two Halton Hills Hawks' girls' fastpitch teams met up in the championship game for the bantam division in a World Series qualifying tournament in Mississauga last month, it turned out to be a no-lose situation.

Yes, the older Hawks' team, consisting mainly of players born in 1992, won the game 9-2 over their mostly 15-year-old counterparts from Halton Hills, but as the gold and silver medal winners, both sides earned the opportunity to play in the 2009 United States Fastball Association

World Series event in Panama City, Fla.

Fifteen teams were entered in the qualifier for the Tier II bantam category, playing in three pools of five.

The '92 Hawks cruised through their preliminary round undefeated, beating the Cambridge Coyotes 5-1, the Napanee Express 10-0, the Ancaster Blizzard 13-7 and the Oak Ridges Diamonds 7-2, earning first place in their pool.

The '93 Hawks beat Mississauga Southwest 9-2, St. Catharines Storm 10-0, the Kitchener Classics 8-2 and lost to the Pickering Heat 7-2, but still picked up the lone wild card berth into the semifinals.

Coach Rich Besworth's '92 squad edged another unbeaten team, Pickering, 3-2 in the final four, while bench boss Janet Allison's '93 birth dates upset Ajax 4-3 in extra innings.

As well as getting a chance to enter the 2009 competition, coach Allison's team will also play in the 2008 NSA World Series 'A' under-14 division tournament in Columbus, Ohio July 20-26 after successfully qualifying for the event last summer.
