Continued from pg. 16

"It's tough to play a team when they have nothing to lose and give credit to Newmarket and their goalie," added McCauley. "We were able to come back and match their intensity and now our younger guys know what it feels like to be in a playoff series. It was a real battle."

Oakville has been pushed to the limit against Akwesasne in a closely contested matchup.

The Buzz earned a pair of two-goal wins at home to begin the series, then the Lightning won twice on Cornwall Island over the weekend and was scheduled to host game five Monday afternoon, until learning that the Oakville team returned home after game four, claiming that the Akwesasne management had misled them about arena availability issues when the contract was originally agreed upon.

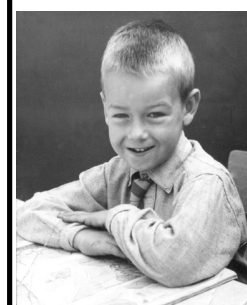

The OLA sided with Oakville's "compromise" to play the fifth game in Bowmanville Tuesday night and the Lightning did so under protest.
