GLT needs actors

The Georgetown Little Theatre, now approaching its 50th season in 2010-2011, is ramping up for the 2008-2009 season with three proven hits: Rumors, a door-slamming farce by Neil Simon; A Party to Murder, a twisty mystery set in a remote Muskoka cottage by Marcia Kash & Douglas Hughes; and, capping off the season, Hayfever, Noel Coward's deliriously funny comedy of bad manners.

This season's running theme—the lives of the rich and strange.

GLT is thrilled to open the upcoming season with a comedy by America's master of the farce, Neil Simon, directed by award-winning director Kathryn DeLory. She has directed past shows for GLT, including The Importance of Being Earnest and Drinking Alone.

Recently, DeLory won an Association of Community Theatres—Central Ontario (ACTCO) award for Best Direction of a Play for Markham Little Theatre's 2007 production of Outlaw by Canada's own comic playwright, Norm Foster.

Auditions for Rumors will take place at the GLT studio, 33 Stewarttown Road on Monday, July 14 and Thursday, July 17. Doors open at 7 p.m. so actors can review the script before auditions begin at 7:30 p.m. Auditions consist of a round-robin reading from the script, no prepared monologues required.

Appointments are also not required— if you're interested, just show up on either July 14 or July 17 by 7:30 p.m.

GLT welcomes all actors from the first-timer curious to tread the boards to the seasoned stage veteran—the main requirement is a desire to have fun and work with a community of like-minded theatre lovers.

Rumors, running November 6-8 and Nov. 12-15, at the John Elliott Theatre, is set during the 10th anniversary of the deputy mayor and his wife. The first couple arrives to find the host has shot himself in the head (it's only a flesh wound) and that his wife is missing. The couple try to cover up the attempted shooting but as each new couple arrives with their own set of hilarious complications, the lies and cover-ups become too much to sustain and nobody can remember who has been told what about whom. First performed in 1988, Simon's popular farce has been a mainstay for community and professional theatres alike.

Also, if you're interested in helping out backstage on this show or in becoming a member of the Georgetown Little Theatre, or if you have any questions about auditions, please leave a message at the studio, 905-877-3422 or visit GLT on the web at: www.georgetownlittletheatre.ca.

Town of Halton Hills File D14ZBA08.005 The Salvation Army

General Committee for the Town of Halton Hills will conduct a Public Meeting to examine and discuss the proposed amendment application to the Town of Halton Hills Zoning By-law 74-51, as amended. The proposed amendment applies to the property known as Part of Lot 2, Concession 8 and municipally known as 8285 Hornby Road and 8300 Trafalgar Road, Town of Halton Hills (Esqueuing). The subject property is located in the rural cluster of Hornby.

Below is a map showing the location of the subject property to which the proposed Zoning By-law amendment would apply.

The proposed Zoning By-law Amendment would change the zoning of the property from "Rural" (RU) to "Rural - Special" (RU-1). The proposed Group Home Type 1 would be located 390m from the nearest Group Home Type 2. The proposed amendment would also allow an associated day program for approximately 30 people, including residents of the property.

If you wish to be notified of the decision of the Town of Halton Hills in respect of this proposed Zoning By-law Amendment, you must make a written request to the Town of Halton Hills - PLANNING & DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT at 1 Halton Hills Drive, Halton Hills, Ontario L7G 5G2.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the Town of Halton Hills before the by-law is passed, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision of Council of the Town of Halton Hills to the Ontario Municipal Board.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting, or make written submissions to the Town of Halton Hills before the by-law is passed, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Municipal Board unless, in the opinion of the Board, there are reasonable grounds to do so.

NOTE: Any written comments/objections submitted to the Town of Halton Hills regarding this Application(s) which is being processed under the Planning Act 1990, may be made public as part of the application process.

Further information is available in the Planning & Development Department, Town of Halton Hills, 1 Halton Hills Drive, Halton Hills, ON L7G 5G2, or contact the Planner assigned to the file, Mark H.
