Leathertown Festival promises loads of entertainment Sunday

The 17th Annual Acton Leathertown Festival this Sunday should be "bigger and better" than ever says Acton BIA co-ordinator Josey Bonnette. "We've got tons of stuff going on this year," said Bonnette. "We've got more than 90 crafts vendors. There will be lots of great food and great fun." The festival will be held Sunday from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., rain or shine on Mill St. in downtown Acton. There will be three stages this year with a full roster of entertainment on each. The main stage lineup will feature Rollie Rocker and the Hemi Heads, Elvis Presley impersonator Bruce Herron, The Acton Citizens' Band and Acton Seniors Centre Line Dancers. Appearing on the stage in Kids Zone will be Paul Bahnke, the Freddie Fusion Show, and The Reptile Man. A third stage at Mill and Main St. will feature Sandy MacDonald, Ron Guttman, The Party Magician, performers from TDI Dance Centre, Blue Thunder Cheerleaders and musicians from Crossing's Community Church. Bonnette said Acton Firefighters will also have their smokehouse demonstration trailer at the festival and there will be a rock climbing wall, a bouncy castle and several other activities for kids.
