Artists to focus on environment with exhibit and speaker event

Williams Mill artists in Glen Williams present a daylong environmental event in conjunction with a creative expression of the views of 34 artists from across Canada on current environmental issues.

The public is invited to both events and attendance is free.

There's No Place Like Home is an art show opening today (Wednesday) at the Williams Mill Visual Arts Centre in Glen Williams. An opening reception with the artists (including recipients of the Order of Canada and the Order of Ontario), will be held Friday night, 7-10 p.m. The show will continue until October 13.

The artwork presents the artists' points of view on environmental issues, climate change and global warming.

Complementing the art show will be series of speakers at the Glen Williams Town Hall on Saturday, Sept. 13, between 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., discussing environmental issues and what residents of Halton Hills can do at home and business.

From 10-10:40 a.m. Lynn Johannson talks about Go Green at work, home and play. Johannson is the author of a number of books and articles on the environment including Going for the Green, a series of short guides and tools for small business. She is president of a nice consulting firm E2 Management Corporation and represents Canada in international negotiations on environment management standards.

From 10:50-11:30 a.m. the Town of Halton Hills sustainability co-ordinator Damian Szybalski updates participants on Halton Hills Green Plan.

PUBLIC INFORMATION CENTRE

CONSTRUCTION OF AN ANAEROBIC DIGESTER, GEORGETOWN WASTEWATER TREATMENT PLANT, TOWN OF HALTON HILLS (GEORGETOWN)

PR-2378

Halton Region is planning to construct a new, third anaerobic digester at the Georgetown Wastewater Treatment Plant in the Town of Halton Hills (Georgetown). The new digester will not expand the overall rated treatment capacity of the facility, but will increase the solids stabilization capacity to match the existing liquid treatment capacity. Construction is due to begin in 2009.

You are invited to attend a Public Information Centre to learn about the planned construction and discuss any concerns you may have with representatives from Halton Region. This Public Information Centre will be an informal meeting and you are invited to drop in at your convenience between the noted hours.
