Tired of trash

Eleven-year-old Alex McKay gets ready to lend fellow scout 12-year-old Nathan Motz a hand removing a tire so they can get at another bicycle and shopping cart during the 4th Georgetown Beavers, Cubs, Scouts and Venturers clean-up of Hungry Hollow Saturday. The youngsters fished a number of items out of Silver Creek as part of the Great Canadian Shoreline Clean-Up initiative.

Three residents injured in two-car Erin crash

Three Halton Hills residents were injured, one critically, in an accident in Erin Saturday afternoon.

Wellington OPP report the accident occurred at about 1:50 p.m. on Wellington Rd. 124 (Hwy. 24) near 10 Sideroad when a 2000 Volvo traveling southbound skidded across the road into the northbound lanes where it struck a northbound 2006 Chevrolet Cobalt.

The driver of the Cobalt, Tanya Burton, 36 of Georgetown and her eight-year-old son received non-life threatening injuries in the crash and were taken to Georgetown Hospital for treatment.

The driver of the Volvo, Cynthia Jolie, 43, of Limehouse and her passenger, a 48-year-old Mississauga man, were rushed by air ambulance to Hamilton General Hospital, where they both remain in critical but stable condition.

Traffic was re-routed for five hours while OPP officers worked to reconstruct the events of the accident.

OPP are seeking witnesses to the accident and ask anyone with information to contact Rockwood OPP at 519-856-1506 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS.
