DEATHS

HEINBUCH, Paul

On September 14th, 2007 a dear friend has left us suddenly at the age of 49. A father of two Tina, Paul and their families. A brother to Debbie and 7 grandchildren all from Windsor, Ontario. Also leaving a family of friends through the years as an employee of Unilock and King Pizza, and his many friends from his years of being involved in different social activities. From our thoughts to our memories, for the sadness we shed, in our hearts and minds, you will forever stay. A fond memory day after day, we will miss your shy sweet smile and your kind loving ways. We will remember the times that we all shared, and remember how much you always cared. A friend you could always trust, even though sometimes he could make a fuss, so many memories we have to share, your friendship to us was beyond compare. All around we'll stand with tears in our eyes, as the last thing we can do is say our goodbyes. In our hearts you will always stay, where our loving memories will have to outweigh, the past we can not forget or undo, the future is what we have to look to. We love you Heinbuch. Family and friends will be received at Greenwood Cemetery on October 3rd, 2007 at 3:00 pm. for a burial service. To be followed by a Celebration of Life at the Lions Club in Georgetown. In his memory contributions can be forwarded to the humane society. To send expressions of sympathy visit www.jsjonesandsonfuneralhome.com 905-877-3631
