

It's in the bag

Marion Baidacoff of Georgetown was one of several area residents who got a little something extra with their morning coffee at the Tim Hortons drive thru recently. Halton Hills Ward 4 Councillor John Duncan handed out free litterbags at the Georgetown South Tim Hortons to help keep garbage off the town's streets and rural roads. The bags, distributed at all Tim Horton's in town, were courtesy of the Litter Free Halton Hills Task Force, which is made up of community volunteers, Chamber of Commerce members, councillors and Town staff.
