GHMA hosts rep tourney

The Georgetown Minor Hockey Association is set to host its largest rep tournament of the year this weekend when the four-day Best of the Best Thanksgiving Challenge faces off Friday morning at three local arenas.

The fourth-annual event has 75 teams registered this year from as far away as Timmins and Western New York.

There are 13 divisions ranging from novice to bantam, with action getting under way at the Acton, Memorial and Mold-Masters SportsPlex ice pads Friday at 8 a.m.

The championship games are slated for Monday.
